

Marcus Dilly

performance skills, improvisation

Marcus has worked with, taught and performed to over 75,000 children over recent years. Running youth theatres, directing plays, teaching LAMDA, and performing shows to schools nationwide, and at festivals, events and venues internationally. Marcus will be teaching performance skills, improvisation and devising helping bring your child's imagination to life through the power of drama!