

Circus skills

Peter White performer and workshop teacher.

Peter White learnt to juggle and had his first performing experiences in the 1980's. He trained with the North West Circus Network in Manchester and Hullabaloo Community Circus in Leeds, and started as a full-time circus skills performer and teacher via the Enterprise Allowance Scheme in 1986.

Pete performs as a street entertainer, cabaret artiste and has a celebrated family show called Suitcase Circus. He teaches hula hooping classes in Leeds. In 2018 Pete taught circus skills in 28 schools throughout the North and the Midlands. His circus workshops are both challenging and fun.
